

Project Control Office (PA)

The Project Control Office is delegated the responsibility to:

- Plan, develop, and implement the business and quality management procedures and practices applicable to the operations of the Programs and Projects Directorate.
- Plan, develop, and implement the resource and technical analysis functions required by Program and Project Divisions.
- Provide recommendations for the effective management of integrated resource requirements across the Directorate.
- Plan, develop, and implement the educational and communications outreach activities for the Programs and Projects Directorate.
- Plan, develop, and implement the intellectual property management functions required by the Programs and Projects Directorate.

